The Postmaster General states that under the postage law of 1815 the revisions and expenditures age about equal. Since the posting of the law of 1854, fixing the present rates, the expenditures have been regularly and largely increasing. These facts obviously sungest that, if I uggest is determined to make the department self-sustaining, the suresi means of their gowould be a return to the law of 1854 and establish five cents postage for distances.
